

MSP™ Foundation and Practitioner

Gain one of the world's most recognised programme management certifications

Overview

Managing Successful Programmes™ (MSP) has been developed by acknowledged experts with experience in managing large business change programmes.

The method is flexible and adaptable for any type and size of programme.

The course includes the APMG MSP Foundation and Practitioner examinations.

This course will be led by Rod Sowden - the lead author of the 2007 edition of the MSP manual.

Rod Sowden

Rod has consulted to the UK Government, the National Health Service, the Victorian State Government in Australia, UK local government, HSBC, the BBC, transportation and retail clients.

Rod has been involved in Managing Successful Programmes since it was launched in 1999, and he was the lead author of the 2007 edition of the MSP manual.
